Major Tasks for Committee Tracker from Final Planning Document and Recommendations

Task: Assess Regional Workforce Needs Not Currently Being Met by Either Institution

Recommendation and/or Action Taken:

Recommends that upon the launch of the new ASU, the President/Provost should commission the Carl Vinson Center for Government or any other suitable consulting firm to conduct a needs assessment for undergraduate and graduate programs and engage with USG Office of Academic Affairs initiatives around High Demand Careers and regional needs.

Task: Develop Curriculums

Recommendation and/or Action Taken:

Recommends that the Provost (permanent) should engage the campus and communities in academic master planning to identify and guide the new university in terms of new degree academic programs.

Recommends that the Office of Fiscal Affairs team should determine the financial costs for new degree academic programs which accounts for future SACSCOC approvals, substantive changes, and onsite visits, etc. especially in light of new doctoral degree programs.
